Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime. (See separately attached Fraud Warnings for your State's specific wording).

I understand that IMMEDIATE NOTICE must be given to the Company upon any injury, illness, surgery, disease or death of an animal, and I agree to do so. I also understand that in the event of the death of an insured horse, a postmortem exam by a qualified veterinarian must be provided at my expense.

I/we declare that I/we have read the specific Fraud Warning applicable to my/our state and that all the above statements made in this application are true to the best of my/our knowledge and belief and that this application shall form the basis of the contract between me/us and the insurer and that I/we will accept and abide by the terms and conditions contained in the policy to be issued. If anything be falsely stated, or information withheld, to influence the Company's decision, then coverage under the policy may be jeopardized if the Company has been prejudiced and the insurance can be canceled with the appropriate length of notice per state statute.
